

Nearly New Consignment Sale Agreement

Thank you for choosing the YWCA and giving us the opportunity to help you sell your gently used children's clothing and other children's related items at our Nearly New Sale. The Sale occurs twice a year, Fall and Spring, and the proceeds from these sales help the YWCA of Gettysburg and Adams County raise funds for their programs. You also can make a little extra money yourself as well as help local families save money.

What to Bring for Your Nearly New Consignment Seasonal Clothing for infants/ children up to 18 years:

Fall and Winter clothes at the Fall Sale,

Spring and Summer clothes at the Spring Sale.

Please have your items "store-ready." Be sure everything has been washed, folded, and sorted by size.

Off-season items will be considered a donation to the YWCA.

Children's Shoes and Boots: Please secure them in pairs (boxed, tied together, or in a plastic bag)

Toys, Puzzles, Games, Books, Videos/DVD: Bring items complete and in good working condition

Baby Equipment that is clean, has all components, and is in good working condition.

Items determined to be unsellable will be placed on the free table outside of the gymnasium. Committee members make this decision.

As you begin to gather your items together, ask yourself, "Would I buy this for my child?"

We CANNOT Accept....

Underwear, boxers, bras, nursing bras, maternity clothing, baby equipment older than 3 years or that does not meet safety guidelines, car seats, crib bumper pads, stuffed animals, household items, and computer games (copyright issues).

Disregard of these guidelines may result in a $10 Penalty against your Consignment Proceeds.
