

WOMEN'S EXCELLENCE CELEBRATION – 2023

Through the Callie Awards, we seek to recognize the significant achievements of women in Adams County in a field of community service, including but not limited to: Business/Agriculture, Education, the Arts, Advocacy, Racial Justice, Health/Wellness/Human Services, and Community Service, with special consideration granted to other areas of public service. The Outstanding Young Woman Award is a self-application or recommended (teacher, coach, guidance counselor, etc., but not a relative) for the $1500 monetary award.

In order to qualify for this Callie Award, a young woman must:

- Must be a current resident of Adams County for more than five years OR a student at HACC, Gettysburg College or the Lutheran Theological Seminary. The Young Woman should be a high school junior – college senior.
- Demonstrate excellence, creativity, and initiative in her field. A GPA of 3.0 or better is required.
- Demonstrate a significant level of commitment and leadership to professional or community service.
- Demonstrate a commitment to serving Adams County and improving the quality of life for others.

If selected, you will be asked to submit a photo to be used in the 2023 Callie Award Publication created in honor of the recipient. There is no need to submit a photo with the nomination form. The celebration of the Callie Awards will be held at the Gettysburg Hotel on October 9, 12:00 PM – 2:00 PM.

NOMINATION DEADLINE: Must be received by Noon on September 15.

Please submit application by mail or drop off: YWCA Gettysburg & Adams County 909 Fairfield Road Gettysburg PA 17325.
